EPIPHANY

A Word from Pastor Trump

Dear People of the Manger,

As I write this it is the week or so before Christmas. Life around the church is very busy. The pageant was yesterday and all had a wonderful time. I thank all who gave of their time to help make it a reality. There was great fellowship shared by all around lunch and then the silly story about Gilligan's Island and a group of pageant performers who land on the island. At the end these pageant profiteers, out to get money from unsuspecting good-hearted people, do put on a show. They do perform the Christmas story. It was at this time of course that our little "angels" and "animals" and "shepherds" came forward. They were cute and adorable in their outfits. Then, they discovered the manger, and the hay. It was not long before some straw was lifted out, and then thrown at another thespian. The next thing we knew these little angels and animals were stomping around in the manger. If baby Jesus had been there he was in for a really tough time. I seriously doubt if as the carol says, "no crying he made," not if he underwent this treatment. The children were unrelenting. We were laughing. Of course the irony is this: That child did come to take on the suffering of the world. He came to take on our pain and our hurt on the cross so that God could declare that pain and death are not the ways of God. People, like so many children, might callously harm him and stomp on him, but they will not have the final word. God would rise, out of the grave, out of the manger, so that all might know life in God. So, forgive the children. They knew not what they did. Merry Christmas. Happy New Year.

Thank You!

Thank you to all who helped make the Advent and Christmas season wonderful. Naming them would be impossible. Please know that every bit of volunteering and service is deeply, deeply appreciated by all! It takes a congregation to well, be a congregation!

Lenten Devotional

Once again this year we are asking the congregation to write devotions for our daily devotional booklet. This practice has proven to be one the congregation enjoys and those who choose to write have really enjoyed being a part of the process. The Holy Spirit stirs up faith in each of us when we choose to study the Word and respond. This year, Ash Wednesday is on March 6 so the devotional passages will be due on February 17. Please consider being a part of this even if you've never participated in the past. Please let Sandra Holland know if you are willing to write a devotional and she will assign you a verse.

Council Highlights

- Tom Henry called the meeting to order at 7 p.m.
- The devotion was led by Phillip Jenkins.
- Minutes of the November 2018 meeting were approved.
- Pastor Trump's and Deacon Holland's reports were accepted as distributed.
- Finance: Giving for November was $9,285 more than actual expenses and $3,500 more than budgeted expenses. YTD giving through November 30 was $4,317 less than actual expenses and $24,021 less than budgeted expenses. Pastor Trump noted that this report does not reflect a payment for S.C. Synod apportionment made after the report was created.
- Property: On Nov. 28, 2018, Tom Henry emailed Council members and requested a vote on replacing irreparable heating unit in the choir room. The motion to approve up to $5,020 from savings to pay for either tying the choir room into the heating unit servicing the existing office areas, or installing a mini-split system for the choir room, passed with a unanimous email vote. Tom Bane is reviewing options with Walker-White. Tom Henry reported that the annual elevator inspection failed; corrective action involves installing a fire extinguisher and posting elevator maintenance records.
- Children's Ministry: Joe Casey reported a successful children's trip to visit Lowman Home residents and announced plans for a December outing to the Saluda Shoals Christmas light show and more service projects after the first of the year.
- Worship: The church will provide brunch after the 10 a.m. Christmas day worship service. The meal is open to all but planned particularly for those members of our church and of our community who may not have other plans for the day.

New Business:

- The Congregational Council's annual overnight retreat will be Friday, Jan. 11, and Saturday, Jan. 12, at Mari Frye's lake house. Staff will plan the retreat and send out details in the coming weeks.
- Council approved a motion from the Worship Team to use $3,300 from undesignated funds to purchase the following: 3 black cassocks and 12 white albs.
- A set of handmade pottery communion ware that will help meet the needs of those with dietary restrictions (separating bread from gluten-free wafers, and wine from grape juice in the same chalice).
- Council members re-elected Sharon Berger as Finance Secretary, Judy Venturella as Treasurer, Deborah Slice as Secretary, Tom Henry to serve as Council President, and Tom Bane as Vice President for 2019.
- Council discussed team assignments. A team volunteer sign-up board will be available in the narthex the first two Sundays in January. It was requested that more information about the various teams, their purposes, and activities should be communicated to members, and that information about team activities be fully reported and included in Council meeting agendas. Members agreed that it is also important to remind families that child care is available on the Sunday each month when many teams meet.

Unfinished Business:

- Several members of Council (Deborah Slice, Beth Mullins, Tom Henry, Paul Osmundson) expressed interest in attending the S.C. Synod's Leadership Days meeting on Thursday, Feb. 28, at Ebenezer Lutheran Church. Rostered leaders will meet from 2 to 5 p.m., and lay leaders will meet from 6 to 8 p.m. The topic is peacemaking in our churches and communities. Others interested in attending should notify Deacon Holland.
- Tom Henry and Tom Bane continue to explore ways to improve building security. The 2019 budget does not include funds for upgrading security, so Council will need to identify the appropriate source of monies for equipment and/or services.
- Jay Folk requested that Council discuss providing more funding for property maintenance, estimating that a mere two tenths of one percent of the value of the property is annually budgeted maintenance.
- Pastor Trump and Tom Henry recognized the three members of Council whose terms ended this month -- Joe Casey, Sybil Long, and Melissa Ray -- and thanked them for their service as lay leaders of St. Andrew's.
- Closing: Pastor Trump led prayers for parish concerns.

Tables of Grace

Tables of Grace is finishing its fourth round (with a total of over 100 participating at various times). We've heard everyone is really enjoying it. It is almost time to launch another round and hope that people will take advantage of this fun way to get to know members of our church family. If you participated before, we will assume you'd like to participate again, unless you tell us otherwise. If you did not sign up before, here's your chance. Please let Jay or Tracy Folk know you're interested, and you'll be assigned a group which will make plans to meet one time in late January - March. There will be a sign up table in the Narthex Sunday, January 6 and 13 but you can go ahead and sign up today by emailing Tracy Folk at tracy1961@gmail.com.

Nursery Volunteers Needed

The nursery team is looking to add some new faces! If you love spending time with little ones from birth to 4 years old, this is the job for you! Having nursery duty involves spending time with some of our littlest Lutherans while they play during the 11:00 a.m. service, as well as some special services throughout the year. Duty days are scheduled at the beginning of the year and the schedule will be distributed in January. You do not need to have children attending the nursery in order to participate in nursery duty! Each family is typically scheduled for about 3 duty days per year. If you are interested in joining this ministry or have any questions, please contact Kelly Williams at (315) 383-3612 or moses3611@yahoo.com.
