A Word from Pastor Trump

It is hard to believe that November is upon us. The leaves are changing but many other things remain the same, and some have gotten worse. Unfortunately, all over the world the Covid numbers are increasing as people move indoors and get closer to one another. We are doing our very best to monitor numbers and make wise decisions about worship and other activities. The outdoor services really have been wonderful, so please consider joining us. The safety measures are quite good. Nothing is perfect, so if you feel uncomfortable please know we miss you and join us online. We will also have two Sundays with small gatherings for Word and sacrament in the sanctuary. Simply reserve a spot and join us.

I am so thankful for this community. In the midst of very divisive times we manage to talk with one another and respect other opinions and feelings. We have to remember that everyone is feeling stress and anxiety about Covid and the upcoming election. Every day we turn on the television, look online, listen to the news or maybe just overhear someone else's conversation, and we encounter strong and sometimes nasty opinions and words. Let us not do the same. Let us value others.

Let us also do our very best to live in the truth. That statement has many meanings. One is that we need to be careful about what we listen to and where we get our information. We know for a fact that there are many sources of misinformation online, and unfortunately in conversations around us. How can we "fact check" what we hear and most importantly what we repeat to others? Maybe a better question to ask is "how can I listen to others before I tell them what I think?" However, as my sermon just the other day expressed, the most important truth that we must live in is the truth of the Gospel, the truth that sets us free. We are set free from prejudice, sin, and selfishness to live not for ourselves but for others. When we live for others, we respect others, listen to others, and yes, even engage others in meaningful and worthwhile discussions.

Again, thank you for all in this community of God. You are faithful and caring and good, no matter what differences we may have. We recognize that what unites us, namely the love and grace of God, is greater than anything that can divide us. As the third chapter of Galatians reminds us: There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

In the Meantime

The Joy of Singing

Hello St. Andrew's from Durham, North Carolina! It has been a while since I have had the pleasure of being in your company and I miss you all very much. I recently rejoined the choir virtually and it has been such an amazing experience. After moving to Durham for Scott's job change, we have not found a church that feels like "home" and I have really been missing singing in the choir, playing handbells and being actively involved in a church family. Back in July, Melinda Crenshaw sent me a message to say hello, and she invited me to drop in on a choir zoom call and catch up with some familiar faces. Nicholas then extended the invitation to join in the virtual choir project that was starting up for St Andrew's. I don't know if I can express in words how excited I was over this! I have been given the opportunity to rejoin a community that I love so much, and once again sing alongside your talented voices. It feels like home to hear Jenny play the piano, to have the expert direction of Nicholas, and enjoy the Word of God in the beautiful music selections provided. As crazy as life has been in the middle of this pandemic, this has been a huge blessing for me! Being able to join you virtually has brought me so much joy! I look forward to continuing to join you in song.

Love and God's Peace,
Marianne Babin

Come be part of our Virtual Choir!

By now, hopefully you have seen and heard the gifts of our Virtual Choir in our online worship services. We have heard from many in the congregation that it truly feeds their souls to have this unique choral ministry during our months apart. With several church Festival Sundays nearing, this is a great time to jump into this ministry with us, and offer your gift of song to those at home! All participation in these projects will be done from the comfort of your own home, with no technical experience or equipment needed other than cell phones, tablets, or computers. If you are interested in participating, please contact Nicholas Shumate who will provide details about how to rehearse and get your part recorded. Nicholas can be reached at nshumate@salutheran.com or at (803) 448-7361.

Donations for Virginia Wingard Food Pantry

You may also pick up your Advent wreath supplies to work at home, if you'd prefer. We will need to know how many wreath kits to assemble, so please register online through the weekly e-news. ## Share Your Faith Stories

Danielle and Brian Sill were members of our congregation for several years before moving out west 3 1/2 years ago for new jobs once Danielle earned her Masters in Epidemiology at USC. Brian wrote an article about their faith journey as they moved through Danielle's complicated pregnancy and premature birth of their son, Griffin. Click here to read the article online. If you are reading a paper copy of this newsletter, contact the church office and we will send you a copy of this article. Thank you, Sill family, for sharing yourselves with us when you lived in Columbia and for continuing to share your gift of faith with us across the miles.

Pajama Time with Church Friends

Did you know that every Tuesday night since March 24th the children of St. Andrew's have been gathering on Zoom for Pajama Time with Church Friends? In the early weeks, we were all learning how this Zoom thing would work and sometimes the link was wrong and there was a lot of user error on my part. The children didn't know how to act or what to say and some wouldn't say anything at all. But, as time passed (7 months/32 weeks) we have all learned a lot! I send out a reminder email on Tuesday afternoon asking the children to bring something specific to share. The week before Reformation, I asked them to wear something red or bring something red because we were talking about Martin Luther and the Reformation. We gather at 7:15. Many children come in their pajamas with wet hair from their evening baths. We welcome everyone and have a time of sharing about the theme for the day. Everyone gets a turn to show what they brought. Then we have a story, video or puppet show. Sometimes it's related to the weekly lessons from that Sunday, sometimes it is based on the church year and sometimes it's just what the Holy Spirit puts on our hearts for that week. After the lesson, Jenny Walrath (and sometimes Lynne and Christa LaSalle) will lead the group in a song. It's always an adventure!

Then, we end with prayer. Sometimes the children repeat a prayer after me but lately I've been asking the children for prayer requests. Tonight they had so many prayer requests that I had to cut them off! After the kids signed off, Jenny and I talked about what to do about the lengthy prayer time. We laughed about this "problem". How wonderful is it that these sweet children have so many prayers to speak to God that we run over our time? You in the congregation without little ones—on Tuesday nights at 7:15 would you please take a moment to thank God for these children for whom you made promises at their baptism? We are surely blessed to have a congregation who loves and cares for these little ones.

—Peace, Deacon Sandra

The Angel Tree

We are working with E.E. Taylor Elementary School to see what we can do to help families in need this year for Christmas but they are still unsure of how to do this since the children are not yet back at school in person. So, please watch the e-news for more details about this in the next few weeks. We know there is a need, we just aren't sure how we will be asked to help just yet.

Backpack program for E.E. Taylor Elementary School

The Covid-19 pandemic has impacted nearly everything in our lives. The Backpack program at E.E. Taylor Elementary School is no exception to the Covid-19 impact. Our congregation has supported this ministry for children for several years. E.E. Taylor has held virtual classes since August. Even though the school soon will ease into in-person teaching two days a week, the school administration is not ready for us to deliver Backpacks for the children. We will stay in contact with the school and let you know when we can resume this important ministry.

Robbie works for Know-How Systems Global, an automotive repair company, as Senior Vice President. He is a graduate of Clemson University with a degree in Economics with a minor in Law. He enjoys family dinners, watching Clemson Football, listening to music, reading autobiographies and tries to play the guitar.

Beth Hutchison

Beth Hutchison has been a member of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church for 15 years. She has participated in many of the outreach programs sponsored by the Church including Family Promise, feeding the homeless in the park, the Backpack program, Inasmuch with the bicycle collection project, and various other community support projects. She has also served on the Stewardship Committee. In November she will end her 18-years of service on the school board of trustees for Lexington-Richland Five School District. During that time, she served as the Board chair, vice chair and secretary. Beth has two grown children and one grandchild. She and her fiancé, Bob Cox, will be married at St. Andrews Lutheran in November.

Georgia Godfrey

I joined St. Andrew's in 2005 with my husband, Jason, and our 6 month old son, Carter. We have enjoyed growing in our faith as a family in this community over the years. Carter is 15 now, and our son, Ben is 11. I work as a School Counselor at Brockman Elementary. Through the years at St. Andrew's, I have been a Sunday school teacher, led projects for Inasmuch, served on church council the last two years, helped with Luther League activities and Vacation Bible School. I especially enjoy our congregation's dedication to service and education.

Mary Lynn Fulmer

My name is Mary Lynn Fulmer. I've been a member of St. Andrew's for over 15 years and a lifelong Lutheran from Prosperity, SC. I attended Newberry College and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. I'm currently employed with Mauldin & Jenkins, a CPA firm in downtown Columbia. I'm the proud mother of two children, Elizabeth and Robert (deceased) and three grandchildren, Adam, Lucy and Lily. In my free time, I enjoy gardening, yoga, walking and being with friends and family. I facilitate a grief support group for families and friends of loved ones who have lost their lives to addiction. I'm passionate about sharing my experiences and hope for individuals affected by this disease. I have been active in the handbell choir, Sunday School, bookclub and In the Meantime small group. The relationships formed at St. Andrews are truly a blessing in my life. My church family has helped me grow spiritually through some very difficult struggles, and I am grateful for this community of faith and honored to serve where I am called.

Mandy Glowacki

Rick, Sean and I found a home at St. Andrew's after Sean was born in 2000. I have since served on Church Council, the Fellowship Committee, assisted with worship as a Reader and Lay Assistant. Beginning in 2018, I have coordinated the children's Sunday School and look forward to more opportunities to serve.

John Bass

I started attending St. Andrew's Lutheran Church in February 2016, with my now wife, Jan Bass. I am employed at Zeus Industrial Products in St. Matthews and am responsible for managing our Logistics Center and our Configuration department. I have been with Zeus for twenty years. Jan and I have five children between the two of us, all in their twenties. It has been a joy and blessing to teach the Sojourners Sunday School class with Jan. I also participate in Trent Shealy's Adult Sunday School class and enjoy the personal sharing and delving into the scriptures. I have felt very welcomed by the church and enjoy the relationships I have made and look forward to making more. My faith has been at the center of decisions I have made throughout my life.

Annual Congregational Meeting

On November 8, at 12:00 p.m., we will hold our annual Congregational meeting, outside, in the parking lot, weather permitting. We would also like to invite members of St. Andrew's to attend the meeting using Zoom. Since our church constitution does not specifically allow the annual meeting via electronic means, the SC Synod has advised us to get approval for a Zoom meeting.

Therefore, you will soon be getting from the church an email asking you to vote on allowing the members of our church to attend the annual congregational meeting via Zoom. We need 80% of the respondents to approve (or vote yes). If you do not use email, simply call the office, and voice your vote. Please make sure you give your name.

There will be one meeting; those attending via Zoom will be able to see & hear, ask questions, make comments, and of course, vote.

If you have questions/concerns about the 2021 Ministry Plan please see Tom Henry or Curtis Amick. They will both be available after the November 1 outdoor worship service. They will also host a Zoom meeting on Monday, November 2 at 6:00 p.m. The Zoom ID will be announced in the weekly e-news.

Vision for Stewardship

By now all of you have received letters, emails, bulletin inserts, seen temple talks and more. We hope to have all of your "intention of giving" cards back by Sunday, November 8. You may mail your cards to the church or you may email your response to sberger@salutheran.com

St. Andrew's Lutheran Church
Congregational Council Meeting
October 15, 2020

Opening

Curtis Amick called the meeting to order at 7:03 p.m.; Council met via Zoom.
Council approved the minutes of the September 17, 2020, meeting.
Council approved the agenda with the addition of a discussion on resuming in-person worship.
Erin Johnson shared a devotion.

President's Report

The President's Report was accepted as presented. In his report, Curtis Amick suggested that if weather cooperates, the November 8 congregational meeting could be held outside at 12:00 p.m. Council talked about ways to include more people – those who are more comfortable participating in activities online – so that everyone has the opportunity to vote on the 2021 ministry plan and Council nominations. There was a consensus to investigate the possibilities. Paul Osmundson agreed to gather a team to test available technology that would allow live observation and voting.

Pastor's Report and Deacon's Report

The Pastor's and Deacon's reports were accepted as presented.

Pastor Trump reported that the Church Re-opening Team continues to recommend that the church follow CDC guidelines still in place: that no more than 10 people gather together in an indoor room while safely distanced from one another. Council voted and agreed to a request for more conversation about plans for re-opening, to be discussed under New Business.

Team Reports

Council received and accepted reports from the worship, social ministry, and stewardship teams.

Stewardship Team: Tom Henry gave an update on this year's stewardship focus. Two temple talks are posted on the church's YouTube channel, and one more is forthcoming. All Council members confirmed their commitment to the campaign and their intention to participate by returning the "intent card" that will be mailed to every member toward the end of the month.

Unfinished Business

2021 Ministry Plan

Council approved a motion to amend the 2021 ministry plan proposed to Council at its September meeting by including Vision/Stewardship for All Seasons implementation in the stewardship cost center. Council approved a motion to present this final version to the congregation for approval on November 8.

New Business

Nominations

Council approved a motion to accept the recommendation of the Nominating Committee to present the following members to the congregation for approval as Council members with two-year terms beginning in January 2021: John Bass, Robbie Derrick, Mandy Glowacki, Georgia Godfrey (second term), Mary Lynn Fulmer, and Beth Hutchison.

Church Re-opening

Jay Folk requested time to discuss the discernment process for opening the church for indoor worship for more than 10 people at a time. Pastor Trump and Curtis Amick shared that the Church Re-Opening Team (which includes two physicians) meets weekly to review local statistics on the percentage of positive tests per number of tests administered. They noted that the team has researched and discussed other re-opening plans, specifically those adopted by the Virginia Synod of the ELCA and the Episcopal Church Upper Diocese, which follow CDC guidelines but also take the size of the room and the quality of air flow into consideration. Jay asked for confirmation that the decision to re-open will be one made by the full Council, and he requested that Council members receive regular information from the team on the statistics and government/ecclesial recommendations being considered as part of the discernment process.

Pastor Trump adjourned with prayer concerns.
