Lutheran Church

February 2021

*The light shines in the darkness and the darkness
has not overcome it.*

John 1:5

Ash Wednesday

Indoor Services for up to 25 people will be held on Ash Wednesday, February 17, 2021 at NOON and in the evening. Evening services will be at 6:00 and if that service fills up, again at 7:00. Please sign up. Remember, only sign up for the 7:00 service if the 6:00 p.m. is full. There will also be a home devotion for Ash Wednesday sent to each home.

Holden Evening Prayer with Worship Drama Videos

Each Wednesday during Lent beginning February 24, the Holden Evening Prayer service will be sent to you with a new “dramatic sermon” inserted each week (see article). These services were recorded including the virtual choir joining on the responses to help you in your worship. They are excellent opportunities to be in worship, alone or with loved ones.

Sunday mornings in Lent

Each Sunday you will be sent a recorded Lenten Worship service. In-person worship will also be offered each Sunday, either inside (2nd and 4th Sundays), or outside (1st and 3rd Sundays).

Lenten Devotion Book

Once again members of this community have offered their own reflections on scripture passages related to Holden Evening Prayer. What does it mean to lift up our prayers as incense? What does it bring to mind to pray for all nations? These devotions are available in print by contacting the church office and will be emailed as well, each day.

GATHERING ONLINE THROUGH ZOOM

A WORD FROM PASTOR TRUMP

We could not have imagined, a year ago, that we will still be dealing with the ramifications of the Covid pandemic through another Lent and Easter. It has certainly had an affect on this community. Just as Covid hit, we were unveiling our new "Vision" that stated, "Where everyone has a place at the table." What does that mean when we can no longer sit at a table together, or gather as we would like around God's table? The good news is that we have found ways to be in community, and to partake of word and sacrament. Hopefully as the months progress we will gradually return to fuller fellowship with one another.

I cannot stress enough the importance for each of us to reach out to others in any way possible. We must not assume that others have a support system in place. They may not. Maybe it is someone who lives alone? Could it be an older member of this community who can hardly leave the house? What can you do to safely minister and care for others?

We have also seen this community hurt by the same political viruses that have hurt our nation. People are angry at one another. People don't know who to trust, and many want to believe the truths that are not truths but that have been told to them over and over again. Let us pray for our nation. Let us not have this community harmed by feelings and attitudes toward those who disagree with us. Instead, may we listen?

Thank you for the ways you are seeking to be the church in difficult times.

Peace,
Pastor Trump

A confession about donations to my church:

I didn't always return my pledge card. I had good intentions, but I would forget about it. There were times that I would find the pledge card in a stack of papers in January and assume it was too late to submit it. So, I would throw away the pledge card.

I knew I would donate to the church regardless, so it didn't seem necessary.

What I didn't stop to consider is that SALC needed to know how much I, and the rest of the congregation, planned to donate in order to create a budget and determine ministry expenses. I also didn't realize that it was never too late to make a financial commitment to my church. I could have returned the pledge card, sent an email to Sharon Berger or pledged online once I realized my oversight.

My other confession is that my donations before I began giving online weren't always consistent. I would forget my checkbook or miss church; thus, my donation wasn't made that week. When the church began promoting online options for giving, I knew that was my best avenue for following through on my good intentions. Now, I don't have to remember to write a check each week or month. More importantly, I am making contributions to support the ministry of my church on a regular basis.

I write this 'confession' in the hopes that if you relate to my story, you also realize the importance of letting the church know how much you intend to contribute to the church over the coming year. I also write this to share how online giving has helped me fulfill my responsibility as a Christian, to give back in a consistent manner.

Automatic Giving: AUTOMATIC giving from a bank account is so wonderful for the church, easy and safe for you, and an easy way to be very faithful in your giving. By giving online you are making your giving a priority. Remember you can change it with a phone call to the church or to your bank. This form of giving is quite frankly critical as the church moves forward in the new year and into an uncertain and interesting future. Going forward, you will be able to see your giving history (beginning with the date the account was set up), schedule other transactions, and make changes as needed to your account.

Steps for giving online:

- Log onto salutheran.com
- Select GIVE at the upper right
- Click the GIVE ONLINE button on the right
- Create a profile
  - email
  - name, address, password
  - choose donation type/amount
- Choose and account
  - checking
  - savings
  - debit or credit card

COUNCIL MINUTES

St. Andrew's Lutheran Church

Council meeting

January 14, 2021

7:00PM

Opening

- Curtis Amick called the meeting to order; Council met via Zoom.
- Council approved the minutes of the Dec. 17, 2020, council meeting as written.
- Council approved the agenda.
- Paul Osmundson shared a devotion.

President's Report

Curtis discussed council assignments for 2021. Council members were assigned meetings to give devotions, with John Trump volunteering to handle devotions for the December 2021 meeting.

Curtis discussed the process for depositing the offerings made each Sunday. Previously, council members rotated handling those responsibilities. But with more church members submitting offerings online or by mail, the number of offerings given during worship services is shrinking. Curtis said a new process for depositing those offerings will be developed. Meanwhile, he will handle that responsibility in January and possibly a few Sundays in February.

Pastor's Report and Deacon's Report

The Pastor's Report and Deacon's Report were approved.

Sandra said the process for compiling the Lenten devotional books has started. This year, the devotions will be based on the Holden Evening Prayer service, with phrases from that service.

Team reports

Tom Henry said the stewardship team had discussed the end-of-year financials. The church made its budget, but was aided by a $44,000 PPE loan. While it's now considered a loan, it will become a grant once all the paperwork is done.

Tom also talked about ideas for informing the Congregation about ongoing activities in the church. With the pandemic, many members may believe there's not a lot happening. That's not true. He suggested improving that understanding by asking individuals who are participating in activities to share their experiences. The stories could be just a few paragraphs.

The stewardship team also is discussing how to thank church members for their gifts and communicate how the money is being spent.

Unfinished business

Pastor Trump urged all teams to constantly focus on the church's new Vision Statement. Each team should ask how it can help the church achieve the goals and objectives.

New Business

For three years, the church has distributed its Christmas and Easter offerings to the Lutheran Campus Ministry at USC and the Love One Another Campaign. The campus ministry has received $1,000 and the remainder went to Love One Another Campaign, for a total of $5,756.

The Love One Another Campaign has ended.

Curtis motioned that this year, $1,000 go to the Lutheran Campus Ministry at USC, up to $1,000 to the Virginia Wingard United Methodist Church Food Campaign, and the remainder go to the church's current and benevolence account. Robbie Derrick seconded the motion, which passed unanimously.

Pastor Trump adjourned with prayer concerns.

Minutes submitted Jan. 26, 2021

GOOD NEWS FOR NICHOLAS SHUMATE!

(bad news for us)

Nicholas has accepted a position as Director of Music at Washington Street United Methodist Church in downtown Columbia. This is an excellent opportunity for him, one that he truly cannot turn down. We here at St. Andrew's have been blessed to have his choral leadership for six years. Please take time to thank him (nshumate@salutheran.com) for his work and wish him well in this new opportunity.

SENDING PARTICIPANTS NEEDED FOR ONLINE WORSHIP SERVICES

For our online worship services, we've enjoyed having different members record the Dismissal ("Go in peace. Serve the Lord") from their homes. This gives us all a chance to see people from our church community, and reminds us that ministry is going on in our homes even as our opportunities to gather in person are limited! Would you like to help with this? If you have a mobile phone, it's easy! If you'd be willing to record yourself or your household to be used in an upcoming worship service, please contact Jenny Walrath (jwalrath@salutheran.com) or Sandra Holland (sholland@salutheran.com).

SOCIAL MINISTRY CORNER KIMBULUNGU FAMILY NEEDS

We met Kim's family a couple of years ago through the Lutheran Family Services refugee program. She and her seven kids, with one on the way, came to the US from the Congo after having lived for several years in a refugee camp in Africa. The children, ages 15 to 2, attend Richland One schools. Kim has a job nearby and uses public transportation to get to and from work.

The family currently lives in a three bedroom apartment about down Broad River Road 2 miles from the church. She hopes to move to a house on February 20th and needs our help. We need you! We have one trailer available but could use another truck or two if you have that morning free. We also plan to provide them with a "new home starter kit" consisting of any items that a family needs when they move to a new house.

Some examples:

- Cleaning supplies (brushes, bucket, rubber gloves, dishwashing and clothes detergents, Windex/ Lysol, etc., vacuum cleaner, broom, mop, shelf liner, etc.)
- Toilet paper
- Paper towels
- Sponges
- Simple tools

If you have questions, call (803-920-3547) or email me (btrump6659@gmail.com). Thank you for continuing to be a giving community.

—Beth Trump

PAJAMA TIME

Tuesday evening Pajama Time with Church Friends continues to be a highlight for St. Andrew's children as well as the adults involved! In January, we went on a couple of "Zoom field trips" to learn some things from other faithful people in our community.

Steve Slice shared with the children about his love for music and how he had always wanted to play the banjo. He was disappointed when a few years ago, he discovered that he has a disease which makes it difficult to use his left hand to make chords on the fretboard. Not letting this get in the way of his love for music, Steve has learned to play the dobro and showed the children this unique instrument. After he played a song for the children, several of them thanked him for his pretty song and told him how much they enjoyed it. Thank you, Steve, for sharing your gift of music with us.

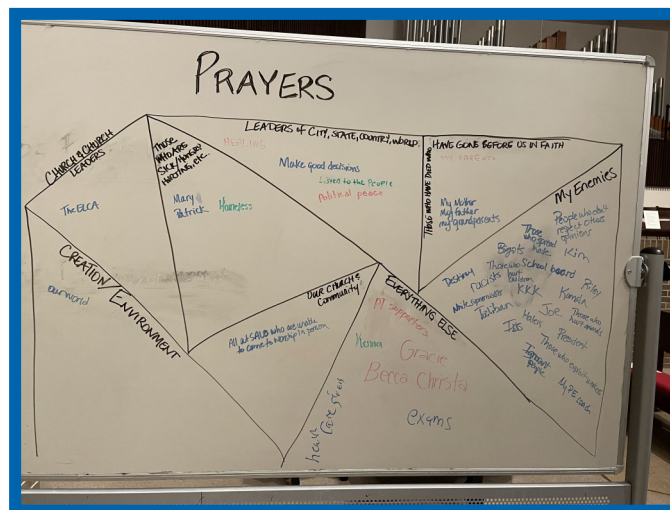

The next week, we visited Bowers Farm in Pomaria. Sarah Bowers (an ELCA Deacon) and her husband run a sustainable farm with a variety of livestock. But, at Pajama Time, she showed us the puppies of one of their own dogs who is a trained therapy dog. She told us what a therapy dogs does and showed us the adorable puppies who were all getting ready to go to their new homes. Sarah told the children that the main job of a therapy dog is to bring joy to people. Each child then shared what brings them joy or how they bring joy to others.

If you have a child or grandchild who has not yet participated in Pajama Time, please join us on a Tuesday night at 7:15 p.m. soon. Contact Deacon Sandra for more information.

The youth of St. Andrew's continue to find ways to connect via Zoom for games or discussion groups. But, in January, we had a Youth-only worship service that we hope will become a monthly activity. It was good to be in worship together and to receive communion around the altar. We prayed for many things and people, including our enemies. Blessings abound in these odd times.

There are times when history can be whimsical. Case in point, this item. Little tin shovels, like this one were given to all children within a certain age range in 1962 when the ground was first broken for the two story building.
